

Spaghetti towers

This is a three phase team and leadership activity within small groups.

Your leader will be the person born on the lowest number day of the month.

In the even of a tie for the leadership date a month then year will decide.

Each team will have a pack of blu tak and spaghetti.

The objective is for your team to build a structure from the materials provided.

The tallest structure completed and standing steady will win.

You have 15 minutes to build your construction.

During phase one the team have ten minutes to do two things:

1. Chart six criteria against which to judge task performance.
2. Plan how to complete task two.

During phase two you have up to 15 minutes to complete your effort.

During phase three you have 10 minutes to judge yourselves against your performance criteria.

Keep your learning points handy!
