Learning quotes that have made me think:

1. "The viability of an organisation as a whole may rest on the ability of employees to learn".
Nancy Dixon.
2. "There is convincing evidence that people who take the initiative in learning, learn more things, and learn better than do people who sit at the feet of teachers".
Malcolm Knowles.
3. "People learn because they want to, or when they see it as worthwhile. If we see no purpose or pleasure in learning we won't".
Ian Hinton.
4. "I cannot stand being taught - but I enjoy learning".
Sir Winston Churchill.
5. "If you don't make mistakes, you aren't trying hard enough".
Warren Bennis.
6. "Learning is not automatic, it requires energy, thought, courage and support".
7. "Real learning, I came to understand, is always about answering a question, or solving a problem".
8. "It may be true that we learn more from our mistakes than our successes, but organisations have in the past been reluctant to put this theory into practice".
Charles Handy.
9. "The ability to learn faster than your competitors may be the only sustainable competitive advantage".
Arie De Geuse.
10. "Organisations learn only through individuals who learn. Individual learning does not guarantee organisational learning, but without it no organisational learning occurs".
11. "There is nothing more important to an individual committed to his or her own growth than a supportive environment".
12. "Helplessness, the belief that we cannot influence the circumstances under which we live, undermines the incentive to learn, as does the belief that someone somewhere else dictates our actions".
Peter Senge.
