

Organisational descriptors: Now and then

Individually write three words below that describe your organisation as it is today.

First word:

Second word:

Third word:

Next, write three words that you feel describe the organisation operating as effectively as it possibly can.

First word:

Second word:

Third word:

When you have all written six words each, take turns to display all your first set on flip chart.

When these are all up, we can discuss any relevant issues this prompts.

Then we will display and process the second set of 'future state' words, and do the same.

Keep your learning points handy!
